|-----|--|--------------------------|
| (1) | It was my birthday last week and I decided to celebrate it with a few friends of mine. I chose a homely place in a quiet part of the town. It is one of my favourite restaurants because the food there is cheap, and it provides an excellent service. It is hardly crowded, and many people did not know about the place. So, I did not book a table for the occasion. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| (2) | When we came to the restaurant, I was surprised because it was completely full. There wasn't a single table free. One of the waiters recognized me and explained the situation. "A party of tourists have come unexpectedly, and the place is full." | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| (3) | The waiter pointed to a table far behind. "The people occupying that table are just about to leave" he said. "Just hold on and you will find a place there." He was right. Twenty minutes later, the people occupying a table in the middle paid their bill and left the hotel. I got my friends there and we all sat down. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| (4) | Unfortunately, our table was almost out of sight. We tried to get the attention of the waiter who sent us there, but he, like all the other waiters, was busy with the party of tourists. Forty five minutes later, once the tourists finished their meal, the waiter, appeared at our table and he looked exhausted. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| (5) | A few moments later the waiter came back to our table. We could tell from his face that he had bad news for us. Apologizing to us he informed that there was no fish or meat left. "All we can offer you is" he said, "one omelette each". | <input type="checkbox"/> |

○ Test 15

Read the following text and answer the questions given below.

The World's Oldest First Grader

- ① On January 12, 2004, Kimani Maruge knocked on the door of the primary school in his village in Kenya. It was the first day of his school, and he was ready to start learning. The teacher let him in and gave him a desk. The new student sat down with the rest of the first graders-six and seven year old boys and girls. However, Kimani Maruge was not an ordinary first grader. He was 84 years old, the world's oldest first grader.
- ② In 2003, when the Kenyan government began offering free primary education to everyone and Maruge wanted an education, too. However, it wasn't always easy for Maruge to attend school like other children. But with the help of his school principal, Jane Obinchi, he was able to stay in school.
- ③ Maruge was a motivated and successful student. In fact, he was one of the top five students in his first grade class. In the second grade, Maruge became a prefect in his school. Over the years Maruge studied Swahili, English and Mathematics. He wanted to use his education to read religious books and to study veterinary medicine.
- ④ In 2005, Maruge flew in a plane for the first time in his life. He travelled to the New York City, where he gave a speech at the United Nations. He spoke about the importance of education and asked for help to educate the people of Kenya. Maruge also wanted to improve primary education for children in Africa.
- ⑤ Maruge died in 2009, at the age of 89. However, his story lives on. The 2010 movie 'The First Grader' showed Maruge's amazing fight to get an education. Many older Kenyans decided to start school after seeing 'The First Grader'. One of those was 19 year old Thoma Litei. Litei said, 'I knew that it was not too late. I wanted to read, and to know more language, so I came to learn'. That is why it is important for his story to be known.

- (1) Say whether the following statements are True or False. Put a tick (✓) in the relevant column.

| | True | False |
|---|------|-------|
| (1) Maruge started his education in a city in Kenya. | | |
| (2) He was very much older than other students in the class. | | |
| (3) In Kenya, the primary education was made free from the year 2003. | | |
| (4) The school principal objected Maruge to continue his education. | | |

(½ × 4 = 02 marks)

Snakes In Sri Lanka

Sri Lankan reptiles count nearly 209 known species with great diversity. These reptiles consist of snakes, lizards, crocodiles, turtles and tortoises. Almost 125 species of them are endemic to Sri Lanka.

Around 83 species of snakes have already been found in Sri Lanka. Twelve species of earthly snakes and twelve species of sea snakes are venomous. The specimens of extremely venomous snakes in Sri Lanka are mostly found in the dry zone. In addition, sea snakes living in the sea around Sri Lanka are more venomous than earthly snakes.

It is reported that at present there are nearly 4060 species of amphibians in the world. The number of amphibian species found in Sri Lanka, however, is 50.

○ Test 7

Read the story and answer the questions.

Once there lived a girl named Narmada. She had a lovely house and a beautiful garden on a top of a hill. She was very happy living there because there were many insects such as butterflies, dragonflies, ants, bees and beetles there. She loved to watch her pet, the baby squirrel chasing butterflies. All these creatures made her garden their permanent home. Narmada took care of them well. But among all, the baby squirrel was her best friend.

One day, the baby squirrel had a fall and fell sick, so everyone became sad as it lay upwards keeping its eyes closed. She sprinkled a little water on its eyes, but it did not respond.

Narmada was so worried and she fed her little pet with some milk. She stroked its head until it fell asleep.

Then she murmured in a soft voice. "You, my baby squirrel, get well soon. If you hear me, please open your eyes".

A few minutes passed by. The baby squirrel opened its eyes. It looked at Narmada in a very grateful manner as if it was thanking her for all what she had done.

The baby squirrel limped slowly near Narmada and looked at her eyes as to say, "Thank you for taking good care of me".

Narmada held the baby squirrel, kissed its forehead and said, "A friend in need is a friend indeed".

Underline the correct answer.

- (1) How many insects are mentioned in the first paragraph?
 (a) three (b) four (c) five
- (2) Narmada loved to be in her garden
 (a) to play with her pet.
 (b) to see her pet running behind butterflies.
 (c) to feed her pet.
- (3) Narmada fed her sick pet with
 (a) some water. (b) some milk. (c) both water and milk.
- (4) According to the story, the phrase similar in meaning to 'stroked' is
 (a) patted tenderly. (b) shook hard. (c) lifted quickly.
- (5) The most suitable title for the story is
 (a) A lost friend.
 (b) Saved at last.
 (c) A troublesome pet.

○ Test 8

Write a paragraph on any one of the following topics. Use about 50 to 60 words.

- (a) Good health habits in the classroom (b) An unforgettable incident in my life

Good health habits in the classroom

Good health habits are good practices in our lives. These habits help us to lead healthy lives. During the period of Covid-19, we started to wear face masks properly, to keep a two metre distance and to cover our mouths or noses when coughing and sneezing. These good habits help us to create a healthy and a happy classroom. * Ignore if the child has written two para.s.

| (1) | It was my birthday last week and I decided to celebrate it with a few friends of mine. I chose a homely place in a quiet part of the town. It is one of my favourite restaurants because the food there is cheap, and it provides an excellent service. It is hardly crowded, and many people did not know about the place. So, I did not book a table for the occasion. | C |
| (2) | When we came to the restaurant, I was surprised because it was completely full. There wasn't a single table free. One of the waiters recognized me and explained the situation. "A party of tourists have come unexpectedly, and the place is full." | D |
| (3) | The waiter pointed to a table far behind. "The people occupying that table are just about to leave" he said. "Just hold on and you will find a place there." He was right. Twenty minutes later, the people occupying a table in the middle paid their bill and left the hotel. I got my friends there and we all sat down. | A |
| (4) | Unfortunately, our table was almost out of sight. We tried to get the attention of the waiter who sent us there, but he, like all the other waiters, was busy with the party of tourists. Forty five minutes later, once the tourists finished their meal, the waiter, appeared at our table and he looked exhausted. | E |
| (5) | A few moments later the waiter came back to our table. We could tell from his face that he had bad news for us. Apologizing to us he informed that there was no fish or meat left. "All we can offer you is" he said, "one omelette each". | B |

26th May 2022.

Dear Kamalash,

Hope you are doing well. I'm getting ready for the upcoming O/L exam. How about you?

Since I left our old school, I missed studying together with you. But I always think of your studies.

I met Gremunu last week. He told me you spend more time for your sports activities these days and you sometimes miss your after school and online lessons too.

Doing sports is a very good thing, to have a healthy life. But, you need to study well and pass the exams to have a good future. If you do not study hard, you will not find a good job.

Therefore, do your sports, but study hard.
 Hope you will not miss your lessons again. Work according to a timetable. That is how I balance both sports and studies.
 Hope to meet you during the next school vacation.

Yours,
 Nikesh

○ Test 15

Read the following text and answer the questions given below.

The World's Oldest First Grader

- ① On January 12, 2004, Kimani Maruge knocked on the door of the primary school in his village in Kenya. It was the first day of his school, and he was ready to start learning. The teacher let him in and gave him a desk. The new student sat down with the rest of the first graders-six and seven year old boys and girls. However, Kimani Maruge was not an ordinary first grader. He was 84 years old, the world's oldest first grader.
- ② In 2003, when the Kenyan government began offering free primary education to everyone and Maruge wanted an education, too. However, it wasn't always easy for Maruge to attend school like other children. But with the help of his school principal, Jane Obinchi, he was able to stay in school.
- ③ Maruge was a motivated and successful student. In fact, he was one of the top five students in his first grade class. In the second grade, Maruge became a prefect in his school. Over the years Maruge studied Swahili, English and Mathematics. He wanted to use his education to read religious books and to study veterinary medicine.
- ④ In 2005, Maruge flew in a plane for the first time in his life. He travelled to the New York City, where he gave a speech at the United Nations. He spoke about the importance of education and asked for help to educate the people of Kenya. Maruge also wanted to improve primary education for children in Africa.
- ⑤ Maruge died in 2009, at the age of 89. However, his story lives on. The 2010 movie 'The First Grader' showed Maruge's amazing fight to get an education. Many older Kenyans decided to start school after seeing 'The First Grader'. One of those was 19 year old Thomas Litei. Litei said, 'I knew that it was not too late. I wanted to read, and to know more language, so I came to learn'. That is why it is important for his story to be known.

a) Importance of learning another language.
We use languages to communicate with each other. In Sri Lanka our main languages are Sinhala and Tamil. We learn one as our mother language and the other one as our second language. Learning either of the languages helps to maintain ethnic harmony.

We also have opportunities to learn Japanese, French, German, Chinese, Russian, Hindi and Korean in our school system. I like to learn English as well as Japanese. English is the most widely used language in the world. We need to learn English to learn more about the latest trends in the areas we are interested in.

For example, the mostly used language to browse the internet is English. In order to use Google or any other search engine, we should have a good knowledge in English.

We need English for our higher education too. Many courses in ^{both} government and private universities are conducted in the English medium. The books we have to refer to for higher education are also written in English.

I would like to be a mechanical engineer one day. My dream is to go to Japan for my higher studies. Therefore I am learning both English and Japanese. One day I hope to go to Japan and find employment there after completing my higher studies.
